and Stefanie Kreher (script)

The film is shown in Spanish with English subtitles.

Date: 19.06.2019, 20.00 Uhr

Venue: Auditorium University of Applied Sciences for Intercultural Theology Hermannsburg, Missionsstraße 3-5, Südheide

"Fe en la resistencia", a documentary film from the year 2018, highlights the role of supporters of Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Methodist and Afrobandist religious communities in the resistance against the Military dictatorship in Uruguay and Latin America. In interviews, contemporary witnesses report about the solidary cooperation of representatives of various denominations and religions as well as guerrillas in the period from 1960.

The film project was supported by the Uruguayan cultural and educational Ministry as well as numerous human rights organizations and churches.

After the screening, there will be an opportunity to meet and discuss with film director Nicolás Iglesias Schneider and scriptwriter Stefanie Kreher, both from Montevideo (Uruguay). The conversation will be moderated by Prof. Dr. Gabriele Beckmann (FIT).

Admission is free.
